

Black Box Parenting Program

Black Box Parenting is a program that explores the effects of Trauma from family violence/family breakdowns on parenting and the difficulties that parents can face as a result.

The Black Box program is intended for parents no longer in crisis, who are safe, to allow time for reflection and trying new strategies.

The Black Box Parenting Program is delivered face to face once a fortnight with telephone support alternate weeks

When: From Wednesday 16th October 2019 for 10 weeks

Where: Centacare Armidale, 150 Rusden Street, Armidale

Cost: Free

For booking and intake please contact
Pedro on 6738 7200

This program is funded by the Australian Government
Department of Social Services

